HR Policy Manual 2024

Comprehensive guide to leave, payroll, and benefits

Version	v3.2
Document Type	Corporate Policy
Classification	Internal
Owner	Enterprise Knowledge Assistant
Effective Date	January 2026

Section 1: Leave Policy

- Employees are entitled to the following leaves per calendar year. All leave types are tracked separately and balance is visible on the HR Portal dashboard.
- Casual Leave (CL): 12 days per year for personal errands and short absences.
- Sick Leave (SL): 12 days per year for medical reasons including doctor appointments.
- Earned Leave (EL): 15 days per year for planned vacations and extended time off.

Leave Carry-Forward Policy

- Up to 45 days of earned leave can be carried forward to the next calendar year.
- Casual leaves cannot be carried forward and lapse at year-end.
- Sick leaves cannot be carried forward and lapse at year-end.
- Encashment: Earned leaves above 30 days can be encashed on the employee's birthday month at 1x basic daily rate.

Leave Application Process

- Apply through the HR Portal under Leaves -> Apply New Leave.
- Manager approval is required for casual and earned leaves.
- Sick leaves up to 2 days do not require prior approval.
- Medical certificate is mandatory for sick leaves of 3 or more consecutive days.
- Leaves cannot be applied retrospectively beyond 7 days without HR Business Partner approval.

Section 2: Payroll

- Payroll cycle: Monthly, with cut-off on the 20th of every month.
- Salary credits are processed on the last working day of the month.
- Attendance regularization requests must be submitted by the 18th.
- Payslips are available on the HR Portal by the 1st of the next month.

Reimbursement Claims

- Submit through HR Portal -> Reimbursements -> New Claim.
- Attach original bills (PDF or image, max 5MB per file).
- Manager approval is required for claims above Rs 5,000.
- Claims submitted before cut-off are processed in the same month.
- Claims after cut-off are processed in the next month's payroll.