Code of Conduct 2024

Ethical standards, gift acceptance, and conflict of interest

Version	v2024.1
Document Type	Corporate Policy
Classification	Internal
Owner	Enterprise Knowledge Assistant
Effective Date	January 2026

6.4 Gift Acceptance Policy

- Employees may accept business gifts up to Rs 2,500 in value per occasion.
- Gifts above this threshold must be declined and reported to Compliance within 7 days.
- Cash or cash-equivalent gifts (vouchers, gift cards) are strictly prohibited regardless of value.
- Gifts from vendors during active procurement evaluations are prohibited.
- Gifts from government officials require prior Legal approval.
- All accepted gifts above Rs 500 must be disclosed in the annual compliance declaration.

6.5 Conflict of Interest

- Disclose any external employment, board positions, or material financial interests.
- Update disclosure annually and on material change (within 30 days).
- Recuse yourself from decisions involving family members or close associates.
- Failure to disclose is a disciplinary offense, up to termination.
- Disclosures reviewed by Compliance + Legal; conflicts reported to Audit Committee.

6.6 Anti-Bribery and Corruption

- Company prohibits all forms of bribery and corruption.
- No employee may offer, give, or accept anything of value to influence business decisions.
- Violation may result in termination and criminal prosecution under applicable laws.
- Concerns can be reported anonymously to ethics@company.com or via the whistleblower hotline.